Welfare Reform

The third Real Life Reform report found an increase in the average debt of respondents taking part in the study (£3,503) with debt repayments increasing by 58% since October. 46% of participants report having nothing left each week to live on once rent and essentials such as food and bills have been paid.

Last year we reported that in Middlesbrough South and East Cleveland, 5,736 children live in poverty – 28% of the child population in the constituency. According to figures by The Children's Society, 2,760 children in poverty are estimated to miss out on the warm home discount in the constituency.

A number of sources report that households affected by the spare room subsidy cannot move due to a lack of suitable accommodation. In the first three quarters of 2013/14, there were 962 general needs lettings in Middlesbrough (CORE data). This compares to 846 lettings in the same period of 2012/13 (a 13.7% increase). Lettings of one-bedroom properties fell by 1.1% (Q3 2013/14 compared to Q3 2012/13).

Data released by the Department of Communities and Local Government in October shows that a total of £483,272 was allocated to Middlesbrough Council in Discretionary Housing Payment funding. Of that, £293,481 has been committed (60.7%). The greatest demand on this (£187,387) was to support 1,021 households affected by the removal of the spare room subsidy in the social sector.

Housing Market

The Chancellor announced in his Budget Statement that the Help to Buy Equity Loan scheme will be extended until March 2020. Since its launch on 1st April 2013 to the end of February 2014, a total of 35 homes were bought in Middlesbrough with support of the scheme. This represents 10.7% of the 328 completed equity loans in Tees Valley.

Average house prices in Middlesbrough in February 2014 stood at £58,944 a decrease of 15.9% on the same period in 2013. This is despite a general upward trend in sales volumes, ending on 115 in December 2013 compared with 94 in December 2012.

Vacant dwellings have been on a general downward trend since 2008. In October 2013 there were a total of 2,246 vacant dwellings in Middlesbrough compared with 2,716 in 2008. Of the 2013 figure, 373 were owned by housing associations. Long-term vacants have fallen by 54.6% since 2008.

In 2012/13, Middlesbrough Council made a total of 148 homeless decisions. Of these, 63 applicants were accepted as being homeless and in priority need (42.6%). The number accepted as being homeless equates to 1.05 per 1,000 households in the district – down from 1.50 in 2011/12 and from 1.36 in 2010/11.
