Welfare Reform

The third Real Life Reform report found an increase in the average debt of respondents taking part in the study (£3,503) with debt repayments increasing by 58% since October. 46% of participants report having nothing left each week to live on once rent and essentials such as food and bills have been paid.

Last year we reported that in Newcastle Central, 7,709 children live in poverty – 38% of the child population in the constituency. According to figures by The Children's Society, 3,710 children in poverty are estimated to miss out on the warm home discount in the constituency.

A number of sources report that households affected by the spare room subsidy cannot move due to a lack of suitable accommodation. In the first three quarters of 2013/14, there were 2,327 general needs lettings in Newcastle (CORE data). This compares to 2,410 lettings in the same period of 2012/13 (a 3.4% decrease). Lettings of one-bedroom properties fell by 21.4% (Q3 2013/14 compared to Q3 2012/13).

Data released by the Department of Communities and Local Government in October shows that a total of £685,271 was allocated to Newcastle Council in Discretionary Housing Payment funding. Of that, £289,035 has been committed (42.2%). The greatest demand on this (£238,338) was to support 525 households affected by the removal of spare room subsidy in the social rented sector.

Housing Market

The Chancellor announced in his Budget Statement that the Help to Buy Equity Loan scheme will be extended until March 2020. Since its launch on 1st April 2013 to the end of February 2014, a total of 100 homes were bought in Newcastle with support of the scheme. This represents 24.5% of the 408 completed equity loans in Tyne & Wear.

Average house prices in Newcastle in February 2014 stood at £124,567 an increase of 9.8% on the same period in 2013. This is driven by sales volumes being on a general upward trend, ending on 266 in December 2013 compared with 258 in December 2012.

Vacant dwellings have been on a general downward trend since 2008. In October 2013 there were a total of 3,772 vacant dwellings in Newcastle compared with 5,715 in 2008. Of the 2013 figure, 108 were owned by housing associations. Long-term vacants have fallen by 46.8% since 2008.

In 2012/13, Newcastle Council made a total of 1,396 homeless decisions. Of these, 220 applicants were accepted as being homeless and in priority need (15.8%). The number accepted as being homeless equates to 1.77 per 1,000 households in the city – up from 1.71 in 2011/12 but down 1.94 in 2010/11.
