

DECENT HOMES FOR AGEING WELL

CONNECTING RESEARCH, POLICY AND PRACTICE IN THE FIELDS OF AGEING AND HOUSING

September 29th 2020, 10:30AM | Online Event

PROGRAMME

10.30      Welcome, housekeeping and introduction to the event

Sue Adams, Chief Executive, Care & Repair

10.35      Quick fire participants POLL – with result

10.40      Homes for ageing – the current reality

Dr David Robinson, Professor of Housing & Urban Studies, University of Sheffield

In this session, David will present an analysis of housing options for older people in England today

10.55      Good enough? - the quality of the current housing stock for older occupants

Helen Garrett, Housing & Energy, Building Research Establishment- BRE

Helen will outline findings from the new analysis of the English Housing Survey data

11.10      Taking the long view – housing renewal and regeneration

Richard Turkington, Director, Housing Vision Consultancy- INVITED

In this session Richard will give an overview of past and current interventions to improve existing homes, with lessons from UK and Europe.

11.25      Quick fire participants POLL – with result

11.30      Better homes for better health

Rachel Toms, Programme Manager, Public Health England

In this session Rachel will consider the connections between housing, health inequalities, NHS priorities and building related evidence.

- 11.45      Time for a revolution – making retrofit of housing in the North a higher priority
Northern Housing Consortium – Speaker TBC
The Northern Housing Consortium will highlight key issues, challenges and opportunities to addressing poor housing in the North
- 12.00      Panel Q&A
- 12.25      Summing Up / Next steps
Sue Adams, Chief Executive, Care & Repair England
- 12.30      Close

Brought to you by:

